

Employment Opportunities at Tokyo YMCA International School

Thank you for visiting the website and for your interest in our school. Below are opportunities for the 2021-22 school year. Come work with an energetic team to help build a diverse and growth-oriented school. Additional opportunities may be added at a later date. TYIS will only contact resumes of interest. Resumes will not be returned. Contact Principal Maxfield (tyis@tokyoymca.org).

Thank you for considering Tokyo YMCA International School.

Elementary Teacher / Full-time

Tokyo YMCA International School seeks a full-time, highly qualified and organized elementary school teacher. Working hours are M - F, 8:00am - 4:00pm including some Saturdays and two annual school camp trips. Position starts mid-August, 2021.

Pay rate depends on experience and education (¥280,000 ~ ¥330,000 monthly).

Basic daily duties include teaching core elementary subjects through an American-based curriculum, weekly lesson planning, committee work for annual events, organizing an after school club activity and recess/lunch duties. Two annual camp events require attendance for a period of three days/two nights and four days/three nights.

The position includes support for professional development; health insurance; opportunities for extra seasonal work (summer/winter programs) and holiday breaks (winter, spring, summer and Japanese national holidays).

Located in east Tokyo on the Tozai Subway line. School is a 5-minute walk from Toyochō station.

Applicants must fulfill the following criteria:

- Valid teaching certificate
- University diploma in elementary education
- Teaching experience required
- Japanese resident or valid working visa
- Native/fluent English ability

Assistant Elementary Teacher / Full-time

Tokyo YMCA International School seeks a full-time, highly qualified and organized assistant teacher. Working hours are 8:00am - 4:00pm, Monday-Friday, including some Saturdays and two annual school camp trips. Pay rate depends on experience and education (¥230,000 ~ ¥280,000 monthly). Position starts Mid-August, 2021.

This position works in a homeroom elementary classroom with the lead grade-level teacher. The team works together to implement lessons and the daily routines of the class.

Basic daily duties include committee work for annual events, organizing an after-school club activity and recess/lunch duties. Two annual camp events require attendance for a period of three days/two nights and four days/three nights.

The position includes support for professional development; health insurance; opportunities for extra seasonal work (summer/winter programs) and holiday breaks (winter, spring, summer and Japanese national holidays).

Located in east Tokyo on the Tozai Subway line. School is a 5-minute walk from Toyochō station.

Applicants must fulfill the following criteria:

- Background in elementary education
- Valid teaching certificate (preferred)
- Teaching experience with elementary level students
- Native/Fluent English ability required
- Japanese resident or working visa

Middle School – Language Arts Teacher

Tokyo YMCA International School seeks a full-time, highly qualified and organized middle school teacher. Working hours are 8:00am - 4:00pm, Monday-Friday, including some Saturdays and two annual school camp trips. Pay rate depends on experience and education (¥280,000 ~ 330,000). Position starts mid-August, 2021.

Basic daily duties include teaching subject-specific content through an American-based curriculum, weekly lesson planning, committee work for annual events, organizing an after school club activity and recess/lunch duties. Two annual camp events require attendance for a period of three days/two nights and four days/three nights.

The position includes support for professional development; health insurance; opportunities for extra seasonal work (summer/winter programs) and holiday breaks (winter, spring, summer and Japanese).

Located in east Tokyo on the Tozai Subway line. School is a 5-minute walk from Toyochō station.

Applicants must fulfill the following criteria:

- Valid teaching certificate (secondary level)
- University diploma in language arts education
- Teaching experience required
- Native English ability
- Japanese resident or working visa

Middle School – Science Teacher

Tokyo YMCA International School seeks a full-time, highly qualified and organized middle school teacher. Working hours are 8:00am - 4:00pm, Monday-Friday, including some Saturdays and two annual school camp trips. Pay rate depends on experience and education (¥280,000 ~ 330,000). Position starts mid-August, 2021.

Basic daily duties include teaching subject-specific content through an American-based curriculum, weekly lesson planning, committee work for annual events, organizing an after school club activity and recess/lunch duties. Two annual camp events require attendance for a period of three days/two nights and four days/three nights.

The position includes support for professional development; health insurance; opportunities for extra seasonal work (summer/winter programs) and holiday breaks (winter, spring, summer and Japanese).

Located in east Tokyo on the Tozai Subway line. School is a 5-minute walk from Toyochō station.

Applicants must fulfill the following criteria:

- Valid teaching certificate (secondary level)
- University diploma in the field of Science
- Teaching experience required
- Native English ability
- Japanese resident or working visa